

Company Portrait

Hentrich-Petschnigg & Partner GmbH + Co. KG is one of Germany's leading architectural partnerships and for the past 70 years they have been producing buildings of every type and size in Germany and abroad. HPP provide a full range of architectural and master planning services. They specialize in the design of corporate headquarters, hotels, hospitals, sport and leisure facilities, shopping centres, transport buildings, town planning, residential units and in refurbishment and listed building projects.

The Düsseldorf-based partnership is now in its 4th generation since it was founded in 1935 by Professor Hentrich and today comprises 10 offices with approx. 200 employees in Germany and abroad. The latest projects of theirs to attract international attention were the winning designs for the "Shanghai EXPO Village" and the "Europe Tower Sofia".

Among their most well-known projects are the "Dreischeibenhaus" in Düsseldorf, the renovation of the Central Railway Station in Leipzig, "Langer Eugen" in Bonn, the Tonhalle in Düsseldorf and the revitalisation of the Grand Hotel in Heiligendamm. The fourth expansion building of ERGO insurance company in Düsseldorf, the Rheinhallen in Cologne for their tenants, RTL Television and Talanx and the medical library O.A.S.E. are currently under construction. Their most recently completed projects are the Shanghai Expo Village and the soccer stadium BayArena as well as the shopping center Rathaus-Galerie, both in Leverkusen.

HPP Architects's head office is in the Düsseldorf Media Harbor, other offices are in Berlin, Cologne, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Leipzig, Stuttgart, Shanghai, Sofia and Washington.